Negro domination. The dispatch is down. brief; but it as full of meaning as the constitution of Michigan, has been defeated. Negro suffrage killed it."

From Iowa, Ohio and Indiana, similar cheering accounts of the town elections, are pouring in. The revolution against the revolutionists, is in Convention assembled: the great deliverance that is promised.

Glorious News from Connecticut.

The news from Connecticut, to the oppressed people of the South and dren. ty everywhere, is as the " shadow of terest, shall be competent jurors. tion of 1867, the Radicals have carried the State by large majorities .--Last year, in the largest vote ever cast ninety four thousand-the reactionary wave elected English, (Democrat) by only 987 majority. On Monday last, the battle was fought over again. The Radicals fought with uncommon zeal, and a hope of victory which was inspired by the small loss which they had sustained in New Hampshire .-They considered the chances of the Presidential election measurably staked on the issue; and they rallied un strongest man. It was a trial of his strength, therefore, as well as of impeachment, and of the Radical policy of negro governments in the South, before a jury of the Northern people. The State literally swarmed with Radcarry the day. The result is the elec- &c. tion of English, the Democratic and Conservative champion, by an increased majority.

This is a great victory. It is de. cisive of the fact, that the reactionary measures of Congress, is still progressing. That the Northern people for the maintenance of the Union, did not intend to place the ten Southern States, under negro rule, and to establish an African balance of power in the Union. SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

From the Yazoo Democrat. We give most of our editorial space this week to the letter of Gen. J. Z. George discussing the course to be pursued by the Democratic party in the election, at which the constitution of the negro Convention is to be submitted. It is a subject upon which we intended to express our opinion at some length in the present issue, but this letter has fallen into our hands, and is so masterly and exhaustive in its treatment of the question, and so thoroughly in accord with our own views, that we give it to our readers with the request to read carefully. Nothing has occurred to us, after attentive reflection, to impair the strength of Gen. George's reasoning; but on the contrary, the action of Congress in the Alabama case, since his letter was written, leaves no choice upon the question of running Democratic candidates at the same time that we vote against ratification.

Suppose that we should positively defeat the proposed instrument in Mississippi, by voting it down, but at the same time should refrain from voting for officers, while the negroes go on and run their candidates: Congress, by a rascally manœuvre, similar to that just practiced upon our Sister State, would at once declare the negro candidates elected, there being no votes against them; and notwithstanding the defeat of the Constitution, would at once instal them as the Provisional government of the State, in place of the present civil officers, from Governor Humphreys down-what good would the defeat of the Constitution then do us, with all of its odious features in effect, fastened on the State, not the least of which, are the thieves who would fill all posts of honor and trust for the purposes of wholesale and private plunder, and general bedevilment of all respectable individuals.

H. W. FOGLE. EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM Providence Ala., May 13, 1865.

DR. JOHN BULL: I send you $30 for CEDRON BITTERS; please send what it will come to after paying freight to Columbus, Miss. I have been troubled for several years with indiger tion, have had to take pills every night for ten or fifteen years, and in February, 1864. I was attacked with general paralysis. I was attacked with general paralysis. I was confined to my room the balance of the year; and in fact, continued in a very weak and nervous condition until second condition until some two months since, when I was put under an operation, and your CEDBON BITTERS for treatment. I commenced improving right away, and am pretty well restored.

Yours, truly, A. L. NEAL
